

EDUCATION ACCESS PROGRAM

NO LEGAL, VISA, ASYLUM, OR IMMIGRATION ADVICE DISCLAIMER

Version 1.0 | Effective Date: May 12, 2026

Document Title	No Legal, Visa, Asylum, or Immigration Advice Disclaimer
Program	Education Access Program
Effective Date	May 12, 2026
Version	Version 1.0

NOTICE. This document is a formal Program disclaimer intended to clarify the limits of Program services. It does not constitute legal advice, does not create an attorney-client relationship, and should be reviewed by qualified counsel before being relied upon for jurisdiction-specific compliance obligations.

This No Legal, Visa, Asylum, or Immigration Advice Disclaimer (the "Disclaimer") applies to all students, parents, guardians, family members, volunteers, mentors, tutors, partner organizations, and other persons who communicate with, receive services from, provide services to, or rely on resources from the Education Access Program (the "Program").

ARTICLE I. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 Defined Terms. For purposes of this Disclaimer, the following terms shall have the meanings set forth below.

- (a) "Program" means the Education Access Program and any affiliated initiative, project, team, workshop, communication channel, volunteer group, resource hub, or educational support activity operated under its name.
- (b) "Educational Support" means non-legal educational assistance, including application planning, school research, essay feedback, SAT or English test preparation, scholarship research, mentorship, workshop participation, and general academic skill-building.
- (c) "Legal or Immigration Advice" means advice, interpretation, strategy, recommendation, document preparation, eligibility assessment, representation, or guidance concerning law, visas, asylum, immigration status, refugee status, work authorization, border entry or exit, travel permission, residency, government filings, or legal rights and obligations.
- (d) "Participant" means any student, applicant, parent, guardian, family member, volunteer, partner organization, or other person who communicates with or receives information from the Program.
- (e) "Program Leadership" means the founder, director, designated coordinator, or other person authorized to supervise Program activities.

1.2 Construction. The headings in this Disclaimer are for organizational convenience only and shall not limit the scope of any provision. The words "including," "includes," and similar terms shall be interpreted as non-exhaustive.

ARTICLE II. EDUCATIONAL SUPPORT ONLY

2.1 Limited Program Purpose. The Program provides Educational Support only. The Program is not a law office, immigration clinic, visa consultancy, asylum organization, government agency, admissions agency, financial aid office, relocation service, or emergency-response provider.

2.2 Permitted Program Activities. The Program may assist Participants with understanding educational pathways, organizing application timelines, identifying school or scholarship requirements, preparing for standardized tests, improving writing skills, receiving essay feedback, and connecting with educational mentors.

2.3 No Professional Relationship. Participation in the Program does not create an attorney-client relationship, legal representative relationship, immigration-consultant relationship, fiduciary relationship, agency relationship, or any other professional advisory relationship concerning legal or immigration matters.

ARTICLE III. PROHIBITED LEGAL, VISA, ASYLUM, AND IMMIGRATION ADVICE

3.1 Absolute Disclaimer. The Program does not provide Legal or Immigration Advice. No statement, communication, meeting, document, website page, form, workshop, email, message, tutoring session, essay review, volunteer conversation, or resource provided by the Program shall be interpreted as Legal or Immigration Advice.

3.2 Specific Exclusions. Without limiting Section 3.1, the Program does not advise on visa applications, asylum claims, immigration status, refugee status, border entry or exit, travel permissions, work authorization, residency, government filings, legal eligibility, deadlines imposed by government authorities, legal strategy, or whether a family should travel, relocate, remain in a country, or contact an authority.

3.3 No Form Preparation or Document Review. The Program does not complete, prepare, review, edit, translate for legal use, or submit legal, visa, asylum, immigration, refugee, residency, work-authorization, or government forms. Participants should not provide such forms to the Program unless Program Leadership expressly requests them for a non-legal educational purpose and states the limited purpose in writing.

3.4 No Interpretation of Law. The Program does not interpret statutes, regulations, embassy instructions, consular rules, visa categories, asylum requirements, court rules, agency guidance, or government eligibility criteria.

ARTICLE IV. REFERRALS AND EXTERNAL RESOURCES

4.1 Referral to Qualified Providers. If a Participant requests Legal or Immigration Advice, Program representatives shall decline to answer and may refer the Participant to Program Leadership. Program Leadership may provide general educational resources or refer the Participant to qualified lawyers, accredited representatives, legal aid organizations, school officials, or other appropriate external providers.

4.2 No Endorsement or Guarantee. Any referral, resource list, website link, organization name, clinic name, or contact information provided by the Program is offered for informational purposes only and does not constitute endorsement, guarantee of quality, guarantee of availability, or assumption of responsibility for the external provider's advice, conduct, fees, eligibility criteria, or outcomes.

4.3 Participant Responsibility. Participants are responsible for independently evaluating external providers and obtaining advice from qualified professionals for legal, visa, asylum, immigration, safety, financial, medical, mental-health, or emergency matters.

ARTICLE V. NO GUARANTEES AND NO RELIANCE

5.1 No Guaranteed Outcomes. The Program does not promise, guarantee, imply, or represent that any Participant will obtain admission, scholarships, financial aid, a visa, asylum, relocation, travel permission, residence status, safety, test-score improvement, institutional acceptance, employment opportunity, or any other outcome.

5.2 No Reliance for Legal Decisions. Participants shall not rely on Program communications, educational materials, workshops, volunteer statements, website content, or application-support services for legal, visa, asylum, immigration, safety, travel, or relocation decisions.

5.3 Information May Be Incomplete or Outdated. Educational resources, school information, scholarship lists, timelines, and external links may become outdated, incomplete, or inaccurate. Participants remain responsible for confirming requirements directly with schools, scholarship providers, testing organizations, government agencies, or qualified advisors as applicable.

ARTICLE VI. VOLUNTEER AND STAFF BOUNDARIES

6.1 Volunteer Prohibition. Volunteers, mentors, tutors, essay reviewers, coordinators, and other Program representatives shall not provide Legal or Immigration Advice, even if they have personal experience with education abroad, migration, displacement, visas, admissions, scholarships, or relocation.

6.2 Required Response to Legal Questions. If a Participant asks a legal, visa, asylum, immigration, safety, travel, or government-filing question, the Program representative shall state that the Program cannot provide such advice and shall refer the matter to Program Leadership or an appropriate outside professional.

6.3 Boundary Escalation. Program representatives shall report repeated requests for prohibited advice, requests to review legal documents, requests involving minors or safety concerns, or situations that appear outside the Program's educational scope to Program Leadership.

ARTICLE VII. EMERGENCY AND SAFETY MATTERS

7.1 No Emergency Services. The Program is not an emergency service, crisis hotline, law-enforcement agency, relocation provider, housing provider, medical provider, mental-health provider, or protective-services organization.

EDUCATION ACCESS PROGRAM | NO LEGAL / VISA ADVICE DISCLAIMER

7.2 Immediate Danger. If a Participant is in immediate danger or requires urgent legal, medical, safety, housing, or protective assistance, the Participant should contact local emergency services, qualified local organizations, legal counsel, or appropriate authorities. The Program may not be able to respond immediately or provide crisis intervention.

ARTICLE VIII. ACKNOWLEDGMENT

8.1 Acknowledgment of Limits. By participating in the Program, submitting forms, attending sessions, communicating with volunteers, or using Program resources, the Participant acknowledges that the Program provides Educational Support only and does not provide Legal or Immigration Advice.

8.2 Agreement Not to Seek Prohibited Advice. Participants agree not to request, rely upon, or pressure volunteers or Program representatives to provide Legal or Immigration Advice, review legal documents, complete government forms, or make legal or immigration recommendations.
